

$3 WINES BY THE GLASSREDS*STARMONT, PINOT NOIR, 2016, CARNEROS, CALIFORNIA

The 2016 is very dark garnet in color, with black cherry, raspberry and earthy notes with just a hint of oak. This is a very well balanced and structured wine with nice acidity, medium weight and a bright finish.

PROTOCOLO, TEMPRANILLO, 2018, MANCHUELA, SPAIN

Brilliant violet. Ripe red berries, candied flowers and a hint of spiciness on the nose and in the mouth. Round and seamless in texture, showing good depth and subtle tannins on the spice-accented nicely persistent finish.

WHITESTALBOTT, CHARDONNAY, 2016, SAINT LUCIA HIGHLANDS, CALIFORNIA

This wine offers aromas of jasmine, sandalwood, and vanilla along with richer notes of brioche and butterscotch. On the palate, lively minerality adds complexity to characteristics of green apple, melon, pear and lemon, accented by notes of butter and cream. Rich and vibrant with a satin smooth finish.

M-A-N, CHENIN BLANC, 2022, CAPE COAST, SOUTH AFRICA

Crisp and light bodied, with appropriate degrees of bright fruit and acidity to entice the palate. On the nose you will find vibrant notes of quince, pear, and pineapple. While on the palate, white peach, green apple, and a burst of citrus come through. Finishing with a well-rounded acidity, minerality, and a rich mouthfeel leaving you ready for another sip.
